Section E - Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 contains certain classes of employment where a person can be asked to disclose spent convictions. The job which you are now applying for falls within that order. Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found on the Ministry of Justice website. It is your responsibility to read this information in full and complete the application form accurately.

Section H – Important Notice to Applicants

Paddock Community Trust takes its duty of care to the people who receive services from us very seriously.

To ensure all reasonable care is taken, references will always be taken from your current employer, previous employers, or places where you have carried out voluntary work. It is important that you give exact names and current address of previous employers/voluntary work areas etc.

All job offers are subject to an Enhanced DBS check and other relevant checks. Due to this you may not be able to commence work, until these checks have been received.

Our recruitment procedure can be intensive and can take some time, however, we are sure you can appreciate the reasons why such stringent checks are made and ask that you bear with us whilst they are completed.

Data Protection Act 2018 applies. We will treat all information relating to your application in confidence. If you are unsuccessful, your form will be destroyed within 4 weeks after the closing date.

If you fail to complete any section of the application form you may not be shortlisted or invited to attend an interview.

We will treat all information provided on this form in the strictest confidence – you may provide additional information in writing and in confidence or indicate that you wish to discuss in more detail if invited for interview.

I declare that the information I have given on this form is complete and accurate and that I am not barred or disqualified from working with children and/or vulnerable adults nor subject to any sanctions or conditions on my employment imposed by a regulatory body or the Disclosure and Barring Service. I understand that to knowingly give false information, or to omit information could result in the withdrawal of any offer of appointment, or my dismissal at any time in the future.
